Product description

SteelSeries Experience I-2 is the new version of the original SteelSeries Experience I-1, the stylish glass mouse pad which received positive reviews from all over the world. SteelSeries Experience I-2 is bigger than the original, which makes it ideal for users favouring low sensitivity mouse settings. It is available in four different colours including black, white, blue and pink to cater the needs of people that need a perfect looking working space. SteelSeries Experience I-2 is made of glass, looks incredibly stylish and will never bend or loose shape. Under the mouse pad, six rubber feet ensure that it won't slip on any surface it's placed on.
